Performance theatre always sounds like blood and sweat? Like breathtaking surprises according to the chaos principle? Being part of the independent scene means long days with nice people on existential themes, but for almost no money? At the university day of the Berlin Performing Arts Festival you can check these prejudices!

On May 26, 2022, students from all universities and faculties are cordially invited to get to know the Performing Arts Festival as a platform for the independent performing arts in Berlin and its makers.

We will raffle 10 free tickets among all registrations received by 12 May 2022! Registration & further information on the PAF University Day programme at:

The Berlin Performing Arts Festival is organized by LAFT – Landesverband freie darstellende Künste Berlin e. V. and is funded by the Senate Department for Culture and Europe.
